Lenczner Slaght Welcomes Vinayak Mishra

Exceptional associates continue to choose Canada's leading litigation firm, strengthening the firm's talent pool, knowledge, and experience.

We are delighted to welcome Vinayak Mishra to our firm. Vinayak's developing litigation practice covers a range of areas including corporate commercial disputes, professional liability matters, and intellectual property litigation.

"We are very pleased that Vinayak has joined us! He is enthusiastic and accomplished and we look forward to adding his strength to our team. Welcome aboard, Vinayak!" says Managing Partner, Tom Curry.

Prior to joining the firm, Vinayak articled and practiced at a leading national law firm where he defended banks, construction companies, employers, franchisors, municipalities, and pharmaceutical companies.

Vinayak obtained his JD from the Schulich School of Law at Dalhousie University, where he was named class valedictorian and won a number of academic awards including the AS Patillo Prize for winning the 2016 Smith Shield Moot and the GI Smith Memorial Award for academic excellence.

Prior to law school, Vinayak completed a double major in chemistry and mathematics at Dalhousie University and worked as a research assistant in the fields of organic, inorganic, and physical chemistry.

Welcome, Vinayak!
