

College of Traditional Chinese Medicine Practitioners and Acupuncturists of Ontario v Xu

Counsel to the College of Traditional Chinese Medicine Practitioners in a complex prosecution of a member found guilty of issuing false diplomas to numerous applicants to the College. The matter raised issues of fundamental importance to the College including the integrity of its registration system.

