Lenczner Slaght Welcomes Expert Discovery Counsel

Canada's leading litigation firm continues to strengthen its Discovery practice with the addition of Sarah Millar, recognized as one of Canada's leading Discovery lawyers.

As Discovery Counsel, Sarah will lead and manage our Discovery practice, build on our strong team, and further enhance the value we deliver to our clients. She will advance the firm's Discovery strategy and work with our Clerk and Litigation Support Group to create standards, programs, systems, and best practices to strengthen our capabilities and ensure that we continue to provide the most efficient and high quality service to our clients.

Sarah will also act on individual matters as our Discovery lawyer, providing tailored advice to our clients on complex issues relating to the discovery phase of litigation and best practices in document management. Sarah will help clients create cost-efficient and defensible strategies to meet their obligations to produce evidence in litigation.

"Sarah will play a key role in the firm's continued excellence in advocacy," says Tom Curry, Managing Partner. "She will support our ongoing efforts to harness the firm's enormous talent, experience, and knowledge to drive growth in key initiatives such as client service, process improvement, innovation, and project management."

Sarah was previously the Head of the Discovery Management Group at a Toronto-based international law firm where she successfully built a team of Discovery specialists.

Welcome, Sarah!
