10th Annual Real Estate Canada Forum

Matthew B. Lerner shared his expertise at the Markets Group 10th Annual Real Estate Canada Forum in a panel discussion titled, Navigating the New Commercial Real Estate Landscape. Matthew discussed where investors are finding opportunity as commercial real estate evolves, how retail and tenant formats are adapting to drive value, and the risks owners and developers face today. The panel also explored emerging trends in real estate disputes, including litigation tied to insolvency and litigation used as a strategic business tactic, and the strategies proving most effective for navigating this next phase of transformation.
