A New Era of Excellence

Canada's leading litigation firm is excited to announce the appointment of our new Managing Partner, Tom Curry, who will lead Lenczner Slaght into a new era of excellence.

"Passing the leadership of the firm to Tom Curry is a key step toward the Lenczner Slaght of tomorrow," said Peter Griffin, "Tom is a natural leader and innovator".

Tom is one of the most experienced trial and appellate advocates of his generation in Canada. His bold strategic thinking and charismatic personality will lead us to new heights of collaboration, innovation and success at Lenczner Slaght. Tom will harness the firm's enormous talent, experience, and knowledge in both excellence in advocacy and growth in the key initiatives of client service, process improvement, innovation, project management, and diversity and inclusion.

In addition to being Managing Partner, Tom will continue his very successful litigation practice. He represents private and public sector clients in class actions, arbitrations, business disputes, administrative proceedings and judicial reviews, professional liability matters and intellectual property cases at both the trial and appellate levels. He appears before all levels of court and tribunals and maintains a busy and successful appellate practice.

With Tom guiding our expert litigators and staff, Lenczner Slaght will deliver best-in-class advocacy for the next 25 years and beyond.
