Sana Halwani

June 3, 2026

Artificial Intelligence Reshapes Deals, Risk, and Disputes in Canada

Sana Halwani was featured in an article by Lexpert on how AI is becoming central to legal analysis, driving new issues in dealmaking, cybersecurity, and valuation. Sana comments on the lawsuits involving the alleged scraping of copyrighted content, indicating that the disputes currently before the courts are likely only the beginning, with additional claims expected as legal challenges related to AI continue to develop.

Continue reading: https://www.lexpert.ca/news/technology-law/artificial-intelligence-reshapes-deals-risk-and-disputes-in-canada/394294