

Andrew Locatelli

is an associate at Lenczner Slaght.

Andrew maintains a broad practice, with experience in complex commercial disputes, class actions, public and administrative proceedings, professional liability matters, and securities litigation.

Prior to joining Lenczner Slaght, Andrew practiced at a large international firm where he successfully represented clients in civil, regulatory, and arbitral proceedings. Andrew has also acted as counsel in internal investigations relating to fraud and regulatory non-compliance.

Andrew completed his law degree at Western University, where he graduated with distinction and was awarded the Robert M. Solomon Scholarship in Tort Law and the Law Society of Ontario Prize for academic excellence. While in law school, he co-represented Canada at the international rounds of the Philip C. Jessup International Law Moot Court Competition, placing in the top four of 650 teams worldwide.

Andrew participates in various Pro Bono programs, providing legal advice and acting as duty counsel for unrepresented litigants.
