Charles Boocock

is a member of the Discovery Support Team at Lenczner Slaght.

Charles' role is focused exclusively on discovery. With experience crafting discovery strategies and leveraging tools and software platforms, Charles is an expert at developing efficient approaches to identifying and reviewing discovery documents, and understands how they fit into the bigger picture of any particular dispute. He assists the firm's litigators in analyzing documents for relevance and making privilege determinations. He also performs quality control work on outsourced document reviews.

Prior to joining the firm, Charles spent over a decade with a leading national law firm, where he was part of a discovery management team. He reviewed and analyzed documentary evidence in major litigation and regulatory matters, and assisted counsel in answering undertakings and identifying key documents for the purposes of building their cases.

Charles obtained his JD from Georgetown University, where he graduated cum laude and was Senior Articles Editor of the Georgetown International Environmental Law Review.
