Dennis Tang

is the Senior Manager of Pricing and Business Intelligence at Lenczner Slaght.

Dennis is responsible for leading the strategic direction for pricing and business intelligence at the firm. He advises our lawyers and business team on the principles of pricing, profitability, alternative fee arrangements, and client service delivery. He also leverages technology and innovation to bridge the gap between stakeholders while implementing best practices in legal services.

Prior to joining Lenczner Slaght, Dennis worked for leading national law firms within Canada, where he played a pivotal role in building up the pricing function.
