Devon R. Kapoor

is an associate at Lenczner Slaght.

Devon maintains a broad civil litigation practice, with experience in the areas of appeals, class actions, commercial litigation, securities litigation, public law, and intellectual property law. Prior to joining the firm, Devon practiced in the New York office of a leading international law firm, where he represented public and private companies, local governments, and individual clients in a wide range of disputes before state and federal courts. He also served as a judicial law clerk to Justice Michael J. Moldaver at the Supreme Court of Canada, and Chief Justice George R. Strathy and Justice Michael H. Tulloch (as he then was) at the Court of Appeal for Ontario.

Devon completed his JD/MBA at Osgoode Hall Law School, where he received a number of academic awards, including the Bronze Medal for third overall standing.
