Jordan Kong

is a Legal Project Manager, Lawyer at Lenczner Slaght.

A foreign-qualified lawyer with strong involvement in law firm operations, program management, and business development, Jordan has held legal and legal adjacent roles at top-tier law and consulting firms in Canada, the United Kingdom, and Australia.

Prior to joining Lenczner Slaght, Jordan was the national leader for competitive procurement initiatives at a global technology startup where he helped to make Canada the company's most successful market.

Jordan was previously appointed as a political and legal adviser to an Attorney General in Australia, where he assisted with many significant and high-profile litigation matters across a wide range of practice areas, in addition to management of the parliamentary legislative program.
