Katie Irwin

is the Manager of Discovery at Lenczner Slaght.

Katie provides project management and technical support in all stages of the discovery process. Katie has expertise in eDiscovery technology, complex search strategies, data analytics, and machine learning. She advises both internal firm personnel and clients on eDiscovery best practices and manages vendor relationships.

Prior to joining the firm, Katie worked as an eDiscovery Case Manager at a leading national law firm where she managed the end-to-end delivery of multiple projects simultaneously, in a cost and risk mitigating fashion.

Katie studied at Queen's University, where she earned both her bachelor's and master's degrees in Geological Engineering. Katie's research focused on collecting, processing, and analyzing Synthetic Aperture Radar (SAR) data for surface water classification and monitoring. Her background in engineering and data management enables her to respond to complex technical challenges that often arise in eDiscovery.

SELECT PUBLICATIONS AND PRESENTATIONS

- eDiscovery Foundations: A Primer on Electronic Discovery – Katie Irwin was invited to share her expertise on a webinar, eDiscovery Foundations: A Primer on Electronic Discovery, hosted by The Sedona Conference. Katie provided insights into key terminology, the major stages of the eDiscovery lifecycle, and practical approaches on learning and career development in the eDiscovery industry.
- DEED's Response to the Ontario Rules Review Phase 2 Consultation Paper – Sarah Millar, Katie Irwin, and the Digital Evidence & eDiscovery Working Group ("DEED") prepared a submission to provide input on the proposed document discovery processes set out in the Ontario Civil Rules Review Phase 2 Consultation Paper.
