Kristina Schmuttermeier

is a summer student at Lenczner Slaght.

Kristina is a JD Candidate at the University of Ottawa, Faculty of Law. As a law student, Kristina has focused on building her advocacy skills through advocacy courses and the moot program, including as a participant in the Donald Bowman Tax Moot and in the Nelligan Law Moot, where she placed as a semi-finalist. Kristina works as a research assistant on a variety of issues, including equity in tax law, gender-related policies and inclusive access rights. Kristina has also served as an Associate Editor of the Ottawa Law Review and, in her third year, is looking forward to serving as a Senior Editor, along with holding the role of the Journal's Treasurer.

Kristina is also passionate about finance. Prior to law school, Kristina earned her Chartered Accountant designation in 2016. Kristina previously practiced auditing, accounting, and tax at a Big 4 firm and a global public accounting firm in the GTA.
