Liza Leshchynska

is an articling student at Lenczner Slaght.

Liza holds a Juris Doctor from Queen's University. During law school, she was actively involved in the Kingston legal community. Liza served as a student clerk for the judges of the Kingston Superior Court of Justice, assisted inmates with institutional and parole matters as a caseworker at the Queen's Prison Law Clinic, and contributed to her professor's research on judicial notice of racial prejudice. Liza was also involved in mentoring fellow law students as an orientation leader and academic tutor. In her first year of law, Liza was awarded course prizes in Tort and Property Law and the Dean's Bronze Scholar Award for her academic achievement.

Liza previously studied Business Administration at Wilfrid Laurier University. During her time at Laurier, she was actively involved in the Kitchener-Waterloo startup community. Liza is passionate about travel and cross-cultural collaboration and has completed international exchanges to Israel, France and Australia.
