

Resource Round-Up

In honour of International Women's Day 2026, our listees have shared the resources that shaped their professional journeys, listed alphabetically below. In the spirit of #GiveToGain, we hope these insights help other women access and benefit from the same tools, guidance, and opportunities.

BOOKS

- All Rise: Practical Tools for Building High-Performance Legal Teams – Reveals how lawyers can catapult their careers by distinguishing themselves not just through their legal work but their ability to build incredible legal teams.
- Quiet: The Power of Introverts in a World That Can't Stop Talking – Explores how introverts have unique strengths and contributions that are often undervalued in a culture that prizes constant talking, extroversion, and outward confidence.
- Truth Be Told: My Journey Through Life and the Law – Follows the life of former Chief Justice Beverley McLachlin from her childhood in the Alberta foothills to her career at the Supreme Court, where she helped to shape the social and moral fabric of the country.

PROGRAMS & WORKSHOPS

- Canadian Bar Association – Women Lawyers Forum – Develops programs, plans, and initiatives for women in the legal profession in Canada, providing an inclusive space for women lawyers to share experiences, build skills, and advocate for change.
- Informed Perspectives – Amplifies the voices of women and gender-diverse people by providing the inspiration, tools, visibility, and skills needed to influence public discourse and decision-making in Canada.
- Osgoode Hall Law School – Intensive Trial Advocacy Workshop – Brings together over 100 advocacy training experts and Bench and Bar speakers for immersive, simulation-based learning, emphasizing active participation through individual and small-group critiques.

MENTORSHIPS & NETWORKS

- Black Female Lawyers Network – Provides a forum for Black female students and practitioners in the legal profession to convene, share and learn from one another.
- Life in Law – Offers free and confidential support for women lawyers in Canada focused on balancing life and practice, peer support, and shared experiences.
- The Honest Talk – Champion women's issues and empowerment across Canada, amplifying meaningful stories through essays, insights, and interviews with everyday women and remarkable leaders.
- IPIC's Women in IP Networking Group – Connects, supports, and empowers women professionals in intellectual property through networking events, webinars, and seminars.
- Young Women in Law – Helps women lawyers in their early stages of practice connect with other lawyers through a not-for-profit platform.
