Canadian Law Awards Celebrates Lenczner Slaghtâ€™s Litigation Excellence

Following extensive research and assessment by industry leaders across Canada, this year’s Canadian Law Awards honoured Lenczner Slaght in two categories.

For the fourth year in a row, Lenczner Slaght was proud to receive the award for Litigation & Dispute Resolution Boutique Law Firm of the Year.

In addition to the firm’s recognition, our Managing Partner, Monique Jilesen, was named Litigator of the Year.

Monique is a formidable advocate and one of the top litigation lawyers of her generation in Canada. She is Lenczner Slaght’s newly appointed Managing Partner and co-leader of the firm’s Commercial Litigation practice group. A fearless litigator, clients trust Monique to take on their toughest and most notable, high-profile cases. She knows what it takes to win and works tirelessly to advance her clients’ interests in the pursuit of justice. Monique’s cases throughout 2022 were a particularly noteworthy example of her work. Highlights include successfully securing an unprecedented Mareva order freezing up to $20 million of assets and cryptocurrency of Freedom Convoy leaders in Li v Barber and acting as counsel to the Ukrainian World Congress in an application for judicial review of Canada's decision to allow the delivery of turbines to Germany for use by a sanctioned Russian company.

Congratulations to Monique on her well-deserved recognition and to all the members of our firm who contributed to our success in the past year!
