

Construction Arbitration

Counsel to a project manager in a series of disputes involving the design and construction of a mining project, including processing and power generation facilities. These disputes involved complicated engineering, project management and construction issues.

