

Lauren Mills Taylor
416-238-1975
lmillstaylor@litigate.com

December 1, 2014

Fenced-in: Don't be "Buffaloed" • When Registering Caveats and Arguing Land Titles Fraud

Lauren Mills Taylor authored a piece summarizing a decision of the Alberta Court of Queen's Bench relating to the breach of a conservation easement and a claim of land titles fraud made by the Nature Conservancy of Canada. (Prior to joining Lenczner Slaght)

Continue reading: <https://www.bdplaw.com/publications/fenced-in-dont-be-buffaloed-when-registering-caveats-and-arguing-land-titles-fraud/>