Inclusive Leader Series: Diversity and Inclusion in Law Firms: Opportunities for Young Lawyers

As a leader in student recruitment and advancing D&I in the legal profession, Shara N. Roy has been asked to speak at the Canadian Bar Association's sold out Inclusive Leader Series event called "Diversity and Inclusion in Law Firms: Opportunities for Young Lawyers".

Shara will be sharing her expert insight on the following questions that will be discussed:

- What are the challenges experienced by junior lawyers from equity-seeking groups in recruitment and advancement?
- How can law firms attract, recruit and retain diverse lawyers?
- What can you do to address discrimination, harassment, and exclusion in the workplace?
- How can you be a leader in promoting equity and diversity in the legal profession?
