

Isabelle Naraine
416-238-7418
inaraine@litigate.com

November 16, 2022

Isabelle Naraine Joins Lenczner Slaght

Canada’s leading litigation firm is delighted to welcome Isabelle Naraine as its Director of Human Resources.

Isabelle is responsible for leading the firm’s Human Resources strategy and team. She ensures the alignment of our business strategy with progressive talent management and people practices in order to foster and support a differentiated employment experience.

Isabelle brings 20+ years of experience as a Human Resources professional in the media and professional services industries. Prior to joining Lenczner Slaght, Isabelle worked at an international professional services firm where she acted as the People Leader for its audit practice. A few years into her career, Isabelle joined one of the largest Canadian media companies where she spent most of her career and held roles of increasing levels of responsibility, from Administrative Assistant to Director of Human Resources responsible for a group of 4,000 employees across Canada. Isabelle is excited to bring her vast knowledge and experience to Canada’s leading litigation firm.

Welcome, Isabelle!