Legal 500 had this to say about our expert litigators:

Lenczner Slaght remains one of the dominant figures in dispute resolution across Canada, fielding a large team of experts in various disciplines from its office in Toronto. Lawyers have extensive experience at all levels of the courts, before administrative and regulatory tribunals, and in mediation and arbitration proceedings, and the firm is a regular fixture in the country's ground-breaking contentious cases.

Insurance

Leading Lawyer

- Glenn Smith

Recommended Lawyer

- Nina Bombier

Litigation boutique Lenczner Slaght handles the full range of insurance disputes, covering a number of policy, coverage and defense matters. The team is also active in reinsurance disputes, providing policy interpretations, and defending against bad faith and punitive damage issues. Glenn Smith, who has a diverse commercial insurance litigation practice, with an emphasis on product liability, and Nina Bombier, who frequently litigates large environmental claims, co-lead the team.

Intellectual Property

Leading Lawyer

- Sana Halwani

Recommended Lawyer

- Andrew Moeser

Litigation boutique Lenczner Slaght fields a dedicated IP team, headed by Sana Halwani; she recently provided representation to Tivo Solutions in three patent actions against Videotron, Bell Canada and Telus, respectively, which included the first two zoom trials at the Federal Court. The team's patent trial experience includes PM(NOC) matters for pharmaceutical companies and a growing number of cases in the technology sector. The practice also litigates trade secret, copyright and trademark disputes and has grown steadily in recent years, most recently through the arrival of oil and gas, IT and biologics expert, Andrew Moeser, who joined from Gilbert's LLP.

Labour and Employment

Recommended Lawyers

- Matthew Sammon
