

June 4, 2018

Lenczner Slaght Appoints Managing Director of Strategic Planning

Jessica Lim will play a key role in driving the firm to new heights of collaboration, innovation and success.

Lenczner Slaght is pleased to announce that Jessica Lim will be the firm's new Managing Director of Strategic Planning. In this role, she will be collaborating with the Management Committee, Directors, Partners, and various committees to execute the firm's strategic plan and drive growth in the key initiatives of client service, process improvement, innovation, pricing, project management, and diversity and inclusion. .

"Jessica is a strategic thinker, natural leader and active change agent who is acutely aware of what matters to our clients and the changes in our rapidly evolving legal market," said Tom Curry, "Her strategic leadership will drive the firm's exceptional client service".

Over Jessica's 16 years in professional services at law and accounting firms she has spearheaded local and national programs and teams. In the 6+ years at Lenczner Slaght she has ignited the firm's marketing, client relations, pricing and continuous process improvement functions – focusing on business and legal services in all areas of the firm.