Lenczner Slaght Launches Commercial List Website!

Commerciallist.com is your one-stop shop for all things Commercial List.

Commercial litigation represents the heart of our practice at Lenczner Slaght. As a firm devoted exclusively to litigation, we have deep experience practicing on the Commercial List. In an effort to provide value to members of the Commercial List community, we have created commerciallist.com. This website includes existing practice resources, precedents, answers to frequently asked questions, best practices, interviews and blogs, important decisions, and relevant news and events.

The Commercial List website has no formal affiliation with the Court. However, Monique Jilesen, partner at Lenczner Slaght, is a member of the Commercial List Users' Committee and led the firm's team in the development of the website.

Monique says "As a specialized commercial court, the Commercial List is an invaluable resource to the business community for the efficient resolution of commercial disputes. We are proud to be launching commerciallist.com to provide access to practice resources and new ideas. It will be a great resource for the Court, counsel, and the public."

Managing Partner of Lenczner Slaght, Tom Curry adds "The Commercial List is the Crown Jewel of the Canadian civil justice system and Lenczner Slaght is privileged to participate actively in its work. Our firm is also committed to innovation and continuous improvement; we believe that the launch of commerciallist.com is an important step forward for all who use this unique Court. We are excited about the chance to work with other participants to make the work of the Commercial List even better."
