- Sana Halwani – Patent Star, Trademark Star, Top 250 Women in IP
- Jordana Sanft – Patent Star, Trademark Star

Congratulations to all who are recognized!

About Managing Intellectual Property's IP STARS

IP STARS rankings are based on rigorous and extensive research carried out over a six-month period, starting from September. This includes a comprehensive and authoritative survey of the IP legal market. Research analysts from all over the world gather information from firms and their clients through interviews, emails and online surveys, as well as from existing public data. Rankings are determined by assessing the strength of the firm's IP team, workload, outcomes achieved for clients and track record.
