Lenczner Slaght Tops Chambers Global Ranking

Canada's leading litigation practice remains in Band 1 for 12th consecutive year.

Lenczner Slaght has once again been ranked in the top tier for dispute resolution by Chambers Global, the world-renowned legal directory. Its recently released rankings for 2014 place Lenczner Slaght in Band 1 for litigation—for the 12th consecutive year.

The Chambers rankings are the culmination of extensive research with clients and law firms around the world, noting that Lenczner Slaght "enjoys an outstanding reputation for its extensive trial experience, unrivalled depth of talent and exceptional advocacy skills."

"Holding a Band 1 ranking for more than a decade reflects our consistency in attracting, training and mentoring the best legal talent," says Peter Griffin, Lenczner Slaght's managing partner. "As we grow, we emphasize superior courtroom skills that produce results for our clients. It is gratifying to be recognized for these standards."

In addition to the firm's rankings in Dispute Resolution and Class Actions, nine Lenczner Slaght lawyers also received individual rankings:
