Lenczner Slaght Welcomes Adam Davis

Canada’s leading litigation firm continues to deepen its expertise with the addition of exceptional associate, Adam Davis .

Adam previously summered and articled at the firm, where he gained experience in a variety of matters including tort and professional negligence trials, contempt proceedings, Mareva and Norwich orders, and oppression proceedings. Prior to rejoining the firm, Adam served as a judicial law clerk to Justice Judith Woods of the Federal Court of Appeal.

“We are thrilled to welcome Adam back to the firm! Adam has a demonstrated commitment to excellence, a passion for advocacy, and a strong work ethic,” says Managing Partner, Monique Jilesen. “We look forward to seeing him continue to thrive and contribute to the success of our clients.”

Adam completed his law degree at the University of Toronto. During his studies, Adam worked as a Program Coordinator at Pro Bono Students Canada, an access to justice organization. Adam was also an active participant in the moot program, having competed in and served as a co-Chief Justice of the Callaghan Memorial Moot.

Welcome, Adam!
