Lenczner Slaght Welcomes Amy Goudge

Canada's leading litigation firm continues to strengthen its talent pool, knowledge, and experience with the addition of a new associate.

Amy Goudge previously summered and articulated at the firm. Prior to rejoining the firm, Amy clerked at the Supreme Court of Canada for Justice Andromache Karakatsanis.

"We are very pleased to welcome Amy back to the firm! Amy has a demonstrated commitment to excellence, a passion for advocacy, and a strong work ethic," says Managing Partner, Monique Jilesen. "We look forward to working with her again and seeing her continue to develop her advocacy skills!"

Amy completed her law degree at the University of Ottawa, where she graduated magna cum laude. While in law school, she researched constitutional law issues for Dean Adam Dodek and copyright policy for Professor Michael Geist. Amy also contributed to law reform projects at the Law Commission of Ontario and the Samuelson-Glushko Canadian Internet Policy and Public Interest Clinic (CIPPIC).

Welcome, Amy!
