Lenczner Slaght Welcomes Andrew Locatelli

Canada's leading litigation firm adds another exceptional lawyer to its talent pool.

Andrew Locatelli maintains a broad practice, with experience in complex commercial disputes, class actions, public and administrative proceedings, professional liability matters, and securities litigation.

"We are very pleased that Andrew has chosen to join us to continue his practice!" says Managing Partner, Tom Curry. "He has demonstrated a passion for advocacy and has an impressive list of accomplishments. We look forward to adding his knowledge and expertise to our team."

Prior to joining Lenczner Slaght, Andrew practiced at a large international firm where he successfully represented clients in civil, regulatory, and arbitral proceedings. Andrew has also acted as counsel in internal investigations relating to fraud and regulatory non-compliance.

Andrew completed his law degree at Western University, where he graduated with distinction and was awarded the Robert M. Solomon Scholarship in Tort Law and the Law Society of Ontario Prize for academic excellence. While in law school, he co-represented Canada at the international rounds of the Philip C. Jessup International Law Moot Court Competition, placing in the top four of 650 teams worldwide. Andrew also competed as a finalist in the Lerner's LLP Cup, led the Immigration Team at Western's legal clinic, and worked as a research assistant to Professor Jason W. Neyers and Professor Andrew Botterell.

Welcome, Andrew!
