

Anil Partridge
416-865-9542
apartridge@litigate.com

May 28, 2025

Lenczner Slaght Welcomes Anil Partridge

Canada's leading litigation firm continues to strengthen its expertise with the addition of Lawyer License Processing Candidate, Anil Partridge.

Anil's practice encompasses a broad range of commercial litigation, intellectual property, defamation, professional liability, and public law matters.

"We are excited that Anil has chosen to continue his practice at Lenczner Slaght," says Managing Partner, Monique Jilesen. "He brings an impressive combination of diverse legal experience, academic excellence, and a deep commitment to advocacy. We look forward to strengthening our team with his knowledge and expertise!"

Prior to joining Lenczner Slaght, Anil practiced at two top international law firms in New York City, where he gained extensive experience across a wide range of matters, including high-stakes copyright infringement litigation, shareholder disputes, and large international M&A transactions.

Anil completed his JD at Harvard Law School. During law school, he provided pro bono legal services to musicians as President of Harvard's Recording Artists Project. He also served as a Teaching Fellow for intellectual property courses at Harvard Law School and the "Justice" course in philosophy at Harvard University. In addition, he served as a legal intern at National Public Radio and the American Civil Liberties Union, where he contributed to constitutional advocacy efforts, including a First Amendment case that was successfully argued at the Supreme Court.

Welcome, Anil!