Lenczner Slaght Welcomes Christine Windsor

Canada's leading litigation firm continues to strengthen its talent pool, knowledge, and experience with the addition of a new associate.

Christine Windsor maintains a broad litigation practice, with a focus on complex commercial disputes and professional negligence. She has appeared before all levels of Court in Ontario and has represented clients before the Consent and Capacity Board.

"We are delighted that Christine has chosen to join our firm to continue her litigation practice." says Managing Partner, Monique Jilesen. "She brings a passion for advocacy, a commitment to teamwork, and a strong work ethic. We are pleased to be adding her bench strength to the firm."

Prior to joining the firm, Christine practiced at a national firm where she gained extensive experience litigating commercial and securities-related disputes and professional negligence claims.

Christine received her JD from the University of Toronto Faculty of Law. She was the recipient of the Jeffrey W. Egnor Prize in Labour Law, the Warren K. Winkler Prize in Labour Law, and the Laskin Prize in Constitutional Law.

Welcome, Christine!
