Lenczner Slaght Welcomes Devon Kapoor

Canada's leading litigation firm adds another exceptional lawyer to its talent pool.

Devon Kapoor maintains a broad civil litigation practice. Prior to joining the firm, Devon practiced in the New York office of a leading international law firm, where he represented public and private companies, local governments, and individual clients in a wide range of disputes before state and federal courts.

"We are excited that Devon has chosen to join our firm!" says Managing Partner, Monique Jilesen. "He has an impressive record of wide-ranging experience in Court and we look forward to adding his expertise and enthusiasm to our team."

Devon has previously served as a judicial law clerk to Justice Michael J. Moldaver at the Supreme Court of Canada, and Chief Justice George R. Strathy and Justice Michael H. Tulloch (as he then was) at the Court of Appeal for Ontario.

Devon completed his JD/MBA at Osgoode Hall Law School, where he received a number of academic awards, including the Bronze Medal for third overall standing.

Welcome, Devon!
