Lenczner Slaght Welcomes Discovery Support Lawyer

Canada’s leading litigation firm strengthens its Discovery practice with the addition of Jessica Gonzalez.

Jessica joins our growing Discovery group, led by our Discovery Counsel, Sarah Millar. Jessica’s practice will focus exclusively on the review and analysis of client document data for production and the project management and quality control of outsourced document reviews. Jessica will assist the firm’s litigators in evidentiary analyses, including identifying key documents, drafting summaries of evidence and chronologies, and responding to undertakings. She is also proficient in the use of litigation review software and is able to fully optimize the analytics that these programs offer. Jessica’s experience coupled with her advanced software knowledge will help our firm provide cost efficient and effective document productions for our clients.

Jessica received her JD from Western Michigan University Cooley Law School in 2005. Prior to joining the firm, Jessica was an Associate Project Manager in the discovery management group at a leading national law firm. Jessica has conducted evidentiary productions for a wide variety of litigations including large scale construction matters, competition matters and class actions.

Welcome, Jessica!
