Lenczner Slaght Welcomes Jenene Roberts

Canada's leading litigation firm is pleased to announce that Jenene Roberts has joined its Intellectual Property Group as Counsel.

Jenene has spent her 15-year career specializing in intellectual property litigation. With a particular focus on patent litigation, Jenene has significant experience and expertise in litigating cases in the pharmaceutical industry. She appears regularly before the Federal Court of Canada in complex patent litigation, and has appeared before the Federal Court of Appeal.

"We are thrilled to welcome Jenene to our team!", says Managing Partner, Tom Curry. "Continuing to build our IP practice is an important part of our strategy and Jenene's experience and record of success will add to its strength."

Jenene is also a registered trademark agent. She has been involved in trademark opposition proceedings and expungement proceedings, having appeared before the Trademarks Opposition Board.

Prior to law school, Jenene worked as a research assistant for three years as an undergraduate chemistry student at Memorial University of Newfoundland, where she was also a recipient of numerous awards, including The Captain Robert A. Bartlett Science Award as the top undergraduate student graduating from the Faculty of Science.
