Lenczner Slaght Welcomes Mark Andrews-Lee

Canada's leading litigation firm continues to strengthen its talent pool, knowledge, and experience with the addition of a new associate.

We are delighted to welcome Mark Andrews-Lee to the firm! Mark maintains a broad civil litigation and regulatory practice, specializing in complex disputes.

"We are excited that Mark has chosen to join our firm!" says Managing Partner, Tom Curry. "He brings a passion for advocacy, a commitment to teamwork and a strong work ethic."

Mark joined Lenczner Slaght after practicing in the Washington, D.C. office of a top international law firm, where he specialized in complex commercial litigation, representing, among other clients, large pharmaceutical companies, sports leagues, and pro bono parties. Before private practice, Mark clerked for Judge Priscilla Owen on the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit. Mark was called to the bar in Colorado in 2016 and Washington, D.C. in 2018 before joining the Ontario bar in 2022.

Prior to joining the firm, Mark graduated with highest honors from the University of Texas School of Law, where he served as a teaching assistant in Legal Research and Writing for Foreign Lawyers and participated in many pro bono legal clinics. Before attending law school, Mark worked as a policy analyst and lobbyist for two Colorado non-profit organizations and as a policy analyst in the Texas House of Representatives.

Welcome, Mark!
