Lenczner Slaght Welcomes Nicole Naglie

Canada’s leading litigation firm continues to add to its depth of experience and knowledge.

Nicole Naglie's practice encompasses a broad range of civil litigation, with particular experience in employment disputes, human rights applications, labour arbitrations, and workplace investigations.

“We are thrilled to welcome Nicole Naglie to the firm,” says Managing Partner, Monique Jilesen. “She brings an impressive record of experience. We look forward to adding her knowledge and expertise to our team!”

Prior to joining the firm, Nicole practiced in the dispute resolution group of a national firm, focused on labour and employment. She has appeared before the Human Rights Tribunal of Ontario, the Ontario Labour Relations Board, and the Ontario Superior Court of Justice. She has also represented clients at countless private mediations and arbitrations.

Nicole completed her JD at Queen’s University, where she was awarded several course prizes and recognized on the Dean’s Honour List. While in law school, she served as a case worker for the Queen’s Prison Law Clinic and Pro Bono Students Canada, advocating for client’s rights. Nicole participated in the competitive Julius Alexander Isaac Moot and the Hicks Morley Moot, where her team earned first place at Queen’s Law.

Welcome, Nicole!
