Meghan Bridges Joins Lenczner Slaght

Canada's leading litigation firm continues to strengthen its talent pool, knowledge, and experience with the addition of a new associate.

Meghan Bridges' civil litigation practice encompasses a wide range of matters, including professional liability, commercial litigation, class actions, and investigations.

"We are excited that Meghan has chosen to continue her practice with our team!" says Managing Partner, Tom Curry. "She brings an exceptional list of cases, a strong work ethic and a real commitment to mentorship. We look forward to adding her strength to the firm."

Prior to joining the firm, Meghan practiced at a national firm where she gained experience litigating complex medical negligence and commercial matters, conducting investigations, and giving real-time advice on highly sensitive and urgent matters of public importance. She has extensive trial experience, having both prosecuted and defended complicated claims at trial and on appeal. Meghan has appeared before all levels of court in Ontario as well as before administrative tribunals.

Meghan received her JD with distinction from the University of Toronto. In law school, Meghan was a passionate mooter. She participated in the Gale Cup Moot and the Grand Moot, coached teams in the Baby Gale and the Gale, and sat on the Moot Court Committee. Meghan also completed the Honours Business Administration program at the Richard Ivey School of Business with standing as an Ivey Scholar.

Welcome, Meghan!
