

Julien Sicco
416-640-7983
jsicco@litigate.com

October 13, 2020

Mind Your Appeal Route: Insolvency Rules Likely to Prevail over Provincial Legislation

Julien Sicco co-authored a blog on the Ontario Court of Appeal's decision in Dal Bianco v Deem Management Services, highlighting how federal bankruptcy rules take precedence over provincial legislation in appeal procedures. The blog emphasizes the strict timelines and requirements under the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act that parties must follow when appealing insolvency-related decisions. (Prior to joining Lenczner Slaght)