New IP Partner Joins Lenczner Slaght

Canada’s leading litigation firm is proud to welcome exceptional intellectual property litigator, Jordana Sanft, as a strong new addition to its formidable IP team.

Jordana is a top-notch advocate, recognized on a national and global level for her deep expertise in all areas of intellectual property law, particularly in patent and trademark disputes. She is well known as a trusted advisor to her clients, providing practical and strategic advice to obtain successful results in and out of the courtroom. She has a long record of success built on innovative and winning strategies. That is why clients trust her to handle their most complex IP cases.

“We are thrilled to have Jordana join our partnership”, said Tom Curry, Managing Partner. “She has demonstrated a commitment to the values that are key to Lenczner Slaght’s strategy – excellence, being the best that we can be, a positive attitude, teamwork, and collegiality. Jordana will help us continue to achieve our clients’ goals.”

“We are delighted to welcome Jordana to our strong and growing IP team,” said Sana Halwani, Partner and Head of the IP Group, “Jordana is a leading member of the IP bar and trusted advisor to her clients. She brings a wealth of experience that will accelerate the growth of our practice, particularly in the pharmaceutical space.”

Jordana is particularly well known for her experience in the pharmaceutical and life sciences industries. She also works with clients in the technology, biotechnology, consumer goods, energy, food and beverage, hospitality, and horticulture industries. She regularly acts in proceedings under the Patented Medicines (Notice of Compliance) Regulations, patent impeachment and infringement actions, judicial review proceedings, and damages actions.

Welcome, Jordana!
