Patent Agent Training Course: Infringement & Validity

Jordana Sanft was invited to share her expertise at the Intellectual Property Institute of Canada's Patent Agent Training Course: Infringement & Validity. Jordana will serve as a lead instructor on the Virtual Lectures and Workshops on "Section 1: Patent Infringement", taking place from February 5-7. The program will cover core principles of patent infringement and include hands-on exercises to deepen students' understanding of these key concepts.
