Relax & Recharge Between Interviews: Lenczner Slaght's R&R Lounge Returns for 2026

Canada's leading litigation firm is once again opening its R&R Lounge to all law students taking part in the Toronto 2027 Summer Student recruit, offering an inclusive space to relax and recharge between in-firm interviews.

The Lenczner Slaght R&R Lounge is open to all law students, including those who are not interviewing with our firm. It is not part of our recruitment process, and no lawyers will be there.

You'll find the Lounge in the lobby of 130 Adelaide Street West on the following dates and times:

- Monday, November 2 – 8:00 am to 7:00 pm
- Tuesday, November 3 – 8:00 am to 7:00 pm
- Wednesday, November 4 – 8:00 am to 3:00 pm

Stop by and take a moment for yourself to:

- Rest (between interviews!)
- Relax (on a comfy couch!)
- Recharge (your phone!)
- Refuel (with snacks!)
- Read (a magazine!)
- Reflect (on the day!)
- Rev up (for what's next!)

First introduced in 2018, the R&R Lounge was created in response to Precedent Magazine's critique of how cocktail events can alienate diverse candidates. The lounge reflects one part of Lenczner Slaght's ongoing commitment to a fair and inclusive student recruitment process.

"In-firm week moves quickly, and we want students to feel supported every step of the way," say Brendan Morrison and Margaret Robbins, Partners and Co-Chairs of Lenczner Slaght's Student Committee. "That's why our firm started the R&R Lounge. We believe students should have a place to pause and reset, no matter which firm they're visiting. Years later, that idea matters as much as ever."

Lauren Sigal, Director of Legal Talent, adds: “We hope the Lounge is a welcome break, and that every student feels free to stop by and take a moment for themselves. It’s one way we put our values of wellness, inclusivity, and community into practice.”
