Esther Nwator
416-865-3727
enwator@litigate.com

August 22, 2017

Restricted Titles and the Regulation of Health Professionals in Ontario

Esther Nwator authored an article examining the restrictions on the use of the title "Doctor" by health professionals in Ontario under the Regulated Health Professions Act 1991, prompted by the case of an audiologist found guilty of professional misconduct for using the abbreviation "Dr." before her name. (Prior to Lenczner Slaght)