Public Law 1

November 20, 2025

Successful Advocacy Before Administrative Tribunals

Zachary Rosen was invited to chair the Canadian Bar Association program, Successful Advocacy Before Administrative Tribunals. The program will cover best practices in mastering advocacy in administrative tribunals, which includes opening and closing statements, cross-examinations, handling objections, adapting to self-represented parties, and navigating evidentiary and procedural nuances.

Continue reading:

https://www.cbapd.org/details_en.aspx?id=ON_ON25ADM03X

