Supreme Court of Canada's Caseload Picking Up

In a featured article on the Canadian Bar Association's National Magazine, Paul-Erik Veel comments on the Supreme Court of Canada's increasing caseload. Drawing on his blog, Has the Supreme Court of Canada Decided to Hear More Cases?, Paul-Erik provided data-driven insight into the trends behind the Court's rising leave to appeal grant rate, suggesting that the Court is increasing its pipeline of future cases and making an affirmative decision to that end.
