Thank You, Gerry Tipold!

After 30 years as a member of the firm's Management Committee, Gerry Tipold retires as Chief Operating Officer of Lenczner Slaght.

"I have had a rewarding career. It has been my privilege to work with everyone at Lenczner Slaght over the past 30 years and I look forward to watching the firm thrive for the next 30," says Gerry Tipold.

"Gerry helped build this firm around a set of firm values that will guide us into the future. He set the highest standards for himself and for others and has always shared our ambition to be number one!" says Managing Partner, Tom Curry. "Gerry built a business team to match the strength of the legal team. He has provided us with the support necessary to stay at the top of the profession and his legacy is in all of us at Lenczner Slaght, and we are so grateful to him."

Gerry has been the Chief Operating Officer of the firm since it opened its doors in 1992. As a member of the Management Committee, he has managed the day-to-day operations of the firm, with ultimate responsibility for the firm's business functions including finance, facilities, and information technology. Throughout his career, Gerry has been an active member of the Association of Legal Administrators, the Law Office Management Association, and the International Legal Technology Association.

Thank you for everything, Gerry!
