Tom Curry Honoured for Excellence in Teaching

Tom is recognized by the Advocates' Society for his outstanding contribution in the classroom and to the profession.

Lenczner Slaght is proud to announce that our Managing Partner, Tom Curry, is the recipient of The Advocates' Society Award for Excellence in Teaching which will be presented at the End of Term Dinner on Thursday, June 7, 2018.

This award recognizes instructors for:

- Their commitment to the Advocates' Society education programs measured by number, geographical location and type of programs the individual participates in;
- Consistent excellent teaching measured by participant evaluations;
- Professionalism in all aspects of his or her participation in education programming.

Widely recognized as a leading trial and appellate counsel, Tom has a long record of success in high-profile litigation. Tom has been asked for many years to share his extensive experience and knowledge at a variety of programs for the Advocates' Society, including Mastering the Art of Examining Witnesses, Telling a Compelling Story, Health Law Litigation, Discovery Skills, Cross-border Issues for Litigators, Practice Management, Challenging Credibility, Evidence for Litigators, Cross-Examination: Strategies for Success, and more.

Congratulations, Tom, for the well-deserved award!
